

Application Procedures and Guidelines for the 2014 Keio University-Global Alliance in Management Education (CEMS MIM) Programme (For those who are planning to apply for admission into the Master's Programme in Economics at Keio University as part of the CEMS MIM Programme.)

1. About the Programme

The Graduate School of Economics offers a double-degree programme with CEMS, the Global Alliance in Management Education. CEMS is a strategic alliance of 28 of the world's top-level business schools and universities, multinational corporate partners and social partners, and offers a Master's Degree in International Management (CEMS MIM). There are three key components of the CEMS programme: Term 1 (the equivalent of Keio's fall semester), Term 2 (the equivalent of Keio's spring semester), and an internship of at least 10 weeks. At least two of these components must be taken outside Japan. If Term 1 and Term 2 are taken outside Japan, students take CEMS courses at one of the CEMS schools for Term 1 and at another CEMS school for Term 2. If one of the terms is taken at a CEMS school other than Keio and the internship is taken outside Japan, students can take the remaining CEMS' term at Keio University. For information about CEMS please see "For Keio Students" (<http://www.ic.keio.ac.jp/en/study/cems/keio/index.html>).

2. Eligibility

Individuals who meet (i), (ii) and (iii) prescribed below are eligible for the Programme.

(i) Applicants should meet any of the qualifications (a) to (f) listed below.

(a) Applicants who have graduated, or are expected to graduate from a university by the end of March 2014.

This Report must state the name of applicant, as well as the name, the affiliation, the position, the contact address and the E-mail address of the Reporter, and be signed and sealed by the Reporter.

(v) The IELTS Test Report Form and/or the TOEFL PBT, CBT and/or iBT Examiner's Score Record and/or the Certificate in Advanced English (CAE). Only originals of the results will be accepted. The originals of the IELTS Test Report Form and/or the TOEFL PBT, CBT and/or iBT Examiner's Score Record and/or the CAE will be returned to the applicant.

All application documents mentioned above should be written in English and produced within the last three months. Documents written in any other language should be translated into English, and they must be confirmed officially that they are proper translations.

Apart from the originals of the IELTS Test Report Form, the TOEFL PBT, CBT and iBT Examiner's Score Record and the CAE, application documents will not be returned.

7. Screening

Screening for admissions will be based firstly on an examination of the application documents to select applicants who will take a written examination and be interviewed in English. The results of this initial selection will be announced on the web page at 10:00 (Japan time) on 26 July 2013. Prior to this, an e-mail notifying an applicant that his/her Application Documents have been received will be sent to the applicants by the Keio University Admissions Center (Graduate School of Economics). On receiving this e-mail, applicants should print out their Exam Ticket in advance by visiting the web page indicated in the e-mail and follow the stated instructions. The examinee's number on the Exam Ticket will be used in the announcement of the results of the initial selection. To see the results of the initial selection, you should visit the web page indicated in the e-mail. The Exam Ticket must be carried by the applicant on the days when the written examination and interviews are held. The written examination and interviews will be held on 12 and 13 September 2013, respectively, at the Mita Campus of Keio University. A Certificate of Permission to Take Entrance Examinations will be posted by mail to overseas applicants selected to take the written examination and be interviewed. The Certificate of Permission to Take Entrance Examinations may be used to obtain a visa for travel to Japan for the Entrance Examinations.
