

Application Procedures and Guidelines for the Keio University-Sciences Po (KUSP) Double Master's Degree Programme: 2017 (For those who are already enrolled in a master's course in the Graduate School of Economics, Keio University.)

1. About the Programme

The KUSP Double Master's Degree Programme is a two-year programme, with Year 1 commencing in the autumn of 2017 and being spent at Sciences Po, and Year 2 commencing in the autumn of 2018 and being spent at Keio. However, due to differences in the academic calendars, students from Keio must have earned at least 4 credit points at Keio before joining Year 1 at Sciences Po.

The KUSP Programme is designed to enable students to acquire the core knowledge in economics, quantitative methods, law and political science needed to design and evaluate public policies. Students who successfully complete the programme will be granted a Master de Sciences Po from Sciences Po and a Master of Arts in Economics from Keio University.

2. Eligibility

Individuals who meet both (i) and (ii) prescribed below are eligible for this programme.

(i) Applicants should already be enrolled in the Master's programme offered by Graduate School of Economics, Keio University.

Students who are currently in the second or later years of their Master's programme offered by the Graduate School of Economics, Keio University are not eligible for this programme, because it will take at least two years to complete the Double Master's Degree Programme commencing in the autumn of 2017, but students cannot be enrolled for more than four years in the Master's programme offered by the Graduate School of Economics, Keio University.

(ii) Applicants should meet one of following two English language requirements:

(a) a score of 7.0 or more in the case of IELTS and a minimum mark of 6 for each category.

(b) a score of 100 or more in the case of TOEFL iBT.

IELTS or TOEFL iBT score reports are valid for two years. The score report must be for a test taken by the applicant between 1 June 2014 and 22 May 2016. Scores will be deemed to have expired if the test was taken more than two years prior to submission of this application, namely, before 1 June 2014.

Please note that the KUSP Programme is designed mainly for those students who will start their master's course in the Graduate School of Economics, Keio University in the spring of 2017. Those students who are already enrolled in a master's course in the Graduate School of Economics, Keio University, may apply for the Programme, but should note that it will take at least two years for any successful applicant to complete the Programme commencing in the autumn of 2017 and to be granted the Double Master's Degree, regardless of the student's current academic year.

Applicants to the KUSP Programme cannot simultaneously apply for the CEMS Exchange (CEMS MIM Programme).
