University profile	Established in 1927, National Chengchi University (NCCU) is noted for its humanities and social sciences disciplines. It currently houses 9 colleges, including liberal arts, science, social sciences, law, commerce, foreign languages & literature, communication, international affairs and education; 33 departments; 2 BA modules (Undergraduate Program in European Languages and College of Communication Undergraduate Degree Program); and 48 graduate institutes (including master's module), with 32 graduate institutes offering PhD programs, 16 on-the-job master's programs, and 5 English-taught degree programs (International Master's Program in Asia-Pacific Studies, International MBA, and more).
Undergraduate programs open to exchange students	NCCU offers courses taught in English from all fields of specialization which are all lectured and supported by NCCU's professors. Most of the courses are both for degree and non-degree (exchange) students, while some of them are exclusive for non-degree (exchange) students. Thus, NCCU has two course-selection systems: one is university-wide, and the other is only for non-degree (exchange) student. Besides, NCCU has established several English-taught graduate programs, such as IMBA, IMICS, IMAS, IDAS, IPIS, SNHCC, and IMES. Among them, IMAS, IDAS, and IMES are affiliated to the College of Social Sciences. Around two months earlier to the beginning of the semester, a complete list of all course offerings will be released and everyone can obtain it via the following websites: University-wide course-selection systems: http://wa.nccu.edu.tw/QryTor/Default.aspx http://moltke.cc.nccu.edu.tw/qrycourse/qryEngSub.jsp (Only for all courses taught in English in the upcoming/current semester.) Course-selection system exclusive for non-degree (exchange) students: http://nccuoic.nccu.edu.tw/eng_credit_course/

Dormitory information	SEE: http://oic.nccu.edu.tw/data/dorm.pdf For students who need on-campus dormitory, they are requested to state it on NCCU's application form along with your submitting the application materials to NCCU. Due to the limited quantities of on-campus dormitory, however, NCCU cannot guarantee on-campus dorm or single-room to each applicant. Most of you have to share your room with one to three roommates, and some might have to live off-campus. If you have difficulties in these aspects, you can find your place off-campus from the very start.
